Summer Theatre

OVERWHELMING SUCCESS ACCOMPANIED THE SEASON . . . The Mustang Summer Theatre presented its third season of theatre-in-the-round. Near capacity crowds evidenced the superb performances of the theatre people. On June 26, 27, the alumni show, "Mary Mary" opened the season. Rehearsals for the musical "The Fantastiks" on July 9, 10, 11, found Rick Leet's "understudy," director Mr. John Toth, filling in for the vacationing actor. Never forgotten will be Elgallo's mysticism. "There is a curious paradox . . ." "Time Out For Ginger" on July 24, 25, introduced "Pop's racoon coat" and the wilted carrot. With "An Evening of One-Acts" on August 7, 8, the curtain closed for the last time: the season had ended.

Homecoming

THREE FLOATS, ONE TROPHY . . . The Senior Class won the float competition. In second place, the Juniors had failed to win the trophy for the first time in three years. Sophomores placed third with "Strike Up a Victory," while lack of funds eliminated the Freshmen from competition. The first place cars were O.E.A.'s "Oh Eat Apples" and Thespians "The Panthers May Be Odd, But We'll Beat Them By a Couple." In overcoming tradition, Homecoming '70 flourished . . . Christenson Chevrolet in Highland housed the controversial Junior float; Spirit Week presented a Day of Mourning, a surprise bonfire, and a questionable skit. A dance with "The Evolution" and 250 people witnessed the departure of Homecoming '70.

Fall Drama

"THE ODD COUPLE" AND A CREW IMMENSELY PROUD . . . Despite the swinging door that never swung and the confused clatter of pots and pans, "The Odd Couple" successfully emerged on November 13, 14. The "Cuckoo Pigeon Sisters" had mastered the Queen's English. The crews found the edible props more tempting than the plastic lingiuni and the "flying pickle." Cast versus crew football games marked the end of another success. Cast—Rick Leet: Oscar, John Papais: Felix, Greg Breclaw: Speed, Scott Sublett: Murray, John Leonard: Roy, Tom Trent: Vinnie, Cherie Brown: Gwendolyn, Diane Leirer: Cecily, Staff—Mr. John Toth: Drama Director, Mrs. Sherry Fech: Drama Assistant, Melissa Gilchrist: Student Director.

Sectionals

SECTIONALS AUGMENTED SCHOOL SPIRIT . . . Sectional fever first materialized as classes decorated their walls. On class color day, spirit climaxed at the traditional pep rally. Freshmen urged the team to "Shine on to Victory!" Sophomores declared "73 Says Victory," while Seniors said "Do It!" The Junior class won the Spirit Trophy as it "Celebrated the Victory" with helium balloons, clowns, and confetti. On "Hat Day," the school congratulated the team after its defeat of the Whiting "Oilers." With "Cowboys and Indians Day" and "Red and White Day," the school hoped for a sectional trophy. However, the Mustangs fell in their second game against Hammond Clark. For the first time in four years, Munster failed to be in the final game.

Spring Drama

SUPERB PERFORMANCES AROUSED INTENSE EMOTIONS . . . "An evening of One Acts" opened the spring season of drama on January 23, 24. "Our Town" playing on March 5, 6, required no scenery. The cast depended upon pantomime as did Emily and George during their thirty-second wedding kiss, and Howie Newsome and his imaginary cow . . . "Come on Bessie!" From Emily Webb, the audience learned, "Oh, earth, you're too wonderful for anybody to realize you!" One Acts—"Two Fools Who Gained A Measure of Wisdom"—Cast—K. Pope, N. Vranich, S. Ford, S. Bolis. Carnival

GREATER PARTICIPATION CREATED A SUCCESS . . .

The involvement of more organizations combined with an enthusiastic crowd to make the spring carnival both enjoyable and profitable. The German Club Jail and Biology Fish Pond were familiar attractions, while the originality of the Frosh Slave Trade and Future Nurses' House of Terror aroused new interest. Jr. funds were used for prom while Sr. profits went for their banquet. A dance with "Courage" ended the day.

Prom

"CAROUSEL OF WONDER" BROKE TRADITION . . . Munster's traditional Junior-Senior Prom was replaced this year by a combined prom and post prom at the Ramada Inn. Carousels with candy suckers as centerpieces, the stage decorated as a merry-go-round, and colorful horses on the walls portrayed the theme, "Carousel of Wonder" to 166 couples. Hal Karton and his Orchestra provided dinner music to contribute to the formality. Additional entertainment was provided by the female lead singer, the "Woman in White." Post prom began at midnight, with music provided by Ask Rufus. At this point, the sophistication of formal attire was replaced by wild dancing and laughter.

Student Assistants

DUTIES DICTATED ACTIVITY . . . Biology Lab assistants traveled to Purdue University for a week-end of science observation. Resource aides worked with micro-film, while attendance records and mail delivery occupied office assistants. Audio-Visual assistants rushed to get the right equipment to the right teacher at the right time. In the meantime, physical education leaders directed exercises while sitting.

Adult Assistants

NEW OFFICE ALLEVIATED CROWDED CONDITIONS

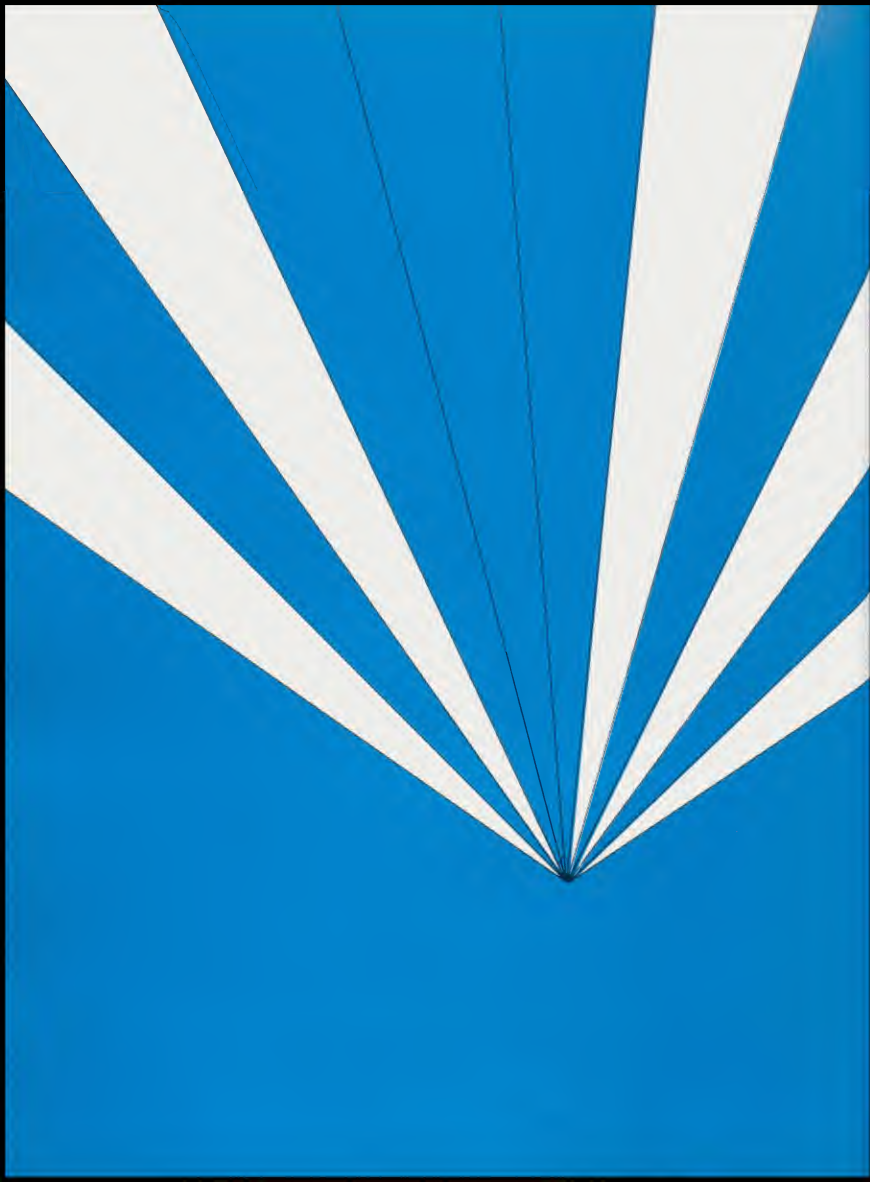

. . . The clerical staff welcomed the opening of the high school office, newly remodeled after the fire. The only new item added was a fireproof vault for school records. The cooks coped with a "feed-in" sponsored by the Student Senate on February 25. Rather than the average number of 300 lunches, 625 lunches were sold that day. Bus drivers contended with overfilled buses. The greater school enrollment increased custodial duties.

Cheer- Leaders

FRIENDSHIP MAGNIFIED THEIR SPIRIT . . . CHEER-LEADERS: While attending camp at Illinois State University, the varsity cheerleaders received the coveted "spirit stick," a clue of their future enthusiasm. They also brought home memories of "The Dots" (camp outfits), "Mom", "The NCA Smile," and the camp quote, "We are ladies!" The cheerleader cycle sextet was an added delight in the Homecoming Parade. Besides leading cheers, they sponsored a dance after the Gavitt basketball game and a Rice Krispies sale to pay for the new short-sleeved sweaters. They will never forget their cheers nor the familiar sounds of "You guys, let's practice!" and, "Don't let the refs get you down!" Sponsors—Mrs. Pat Sholtz, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson.

Crier

EDITORS STRUGGLED TO "SAVE THE CRIER" . . .
CRITER: Despite hopeful plans, problems multiplied as funds ran low and some editors resigned; however, the remaining staff refused to quit. Volunteers filled vacant positions and quickly learned through experience. To meet increasing costs the staff began the tradition of selling carnations on St. Valentines Day. They also sold taffy apples and football cushions and coordinated a money-making "Save the Crier" campaign with Burger King. In addition to regular issues, the Crier staff produced special Christmas, sectional, and senior issues. Advisor—Miss Nancy Kelley. Awards—Best Story: Mary McLean; Most Dedicated Editor: Alexis Huttie; Best Sophomore: Linda Zagrocki; Special Thanks: Arleen Simon, Editor-in-Chief.

Student Senate

GOALS JUSTIFIED THE METHODS USED . . . STUDENT

SENATE: Members advocated open lunch, driving to school, and a reformed curriculum. Jeff Ritter and Rick Leet presented reasons to the School Board for open lunch and driving to school. The Senate circulated petitions and promoted an "Unboycott" of the lunch facilities. However these efforts proved unsuccessful, and the Senate was denied its requests. After the impeachment and conviction of Treasurer John Papais, the Senate elected Jay Spector to replace him. Members with the best attendance records participated in the student exchange program with Highland, Gavi, Morton, Hammond High, Lake Central, and Lowell. The Senate sponsored Homecoming Week, a talent show, a dance, a Christmas party at the Trade Winds Rehabilitation Association, and the donation of $100 to the Karen Allen Kidney Fund. G.A.A.

MEMBERS EXPERIENCED GROWING INVOLVEMENT

... G.A.A.: This year's Girls' Athletic Association earned money for equipment and referee fees by selling Munster license plates. The Booster Club donated a dozen warm-up suits. Considered a serious contender for the conference title, Munster's first competing Varsity Volleyball team was unable to overcome lack of experience before finals. The team, however, played the women's faculty volleyball team and emerged victorious. The intramural team became more popular. Munster hosted the state gymnastic meet, but no Munster girl competed. The first MHS Varsity Bowling Squad held weekly sessions at local lanes and placed third in the conference. The track team finished fifth in sectionals and Gayle Skogan and Linda Goldsmith went on to the state meet. Gayle Skogan secured fifth place in jumping the 50 yd. hurdles. Members of the G.A.A. golf team participated in the annual state tourney. Kris Rucinski placed fifth while golf sports head, Mary Ellen Forszt, brought home a second place trophy. G.A.A. held its Mother-Daughter banquet at San Remo's on May 19. Sponsor—Miss Mary Beth Stonebraker. Awards—Best Sportsmanship: Sue Resler, Sue Doherty.

Vocal Groups

"FIRSTS" ACKNOWLEDGE MUSICAL EXCELLENCE . . .
MIXED ENSEMBLE, BOYS' ENSEMBLE, GIRLS' ENSEMBLE, GIRLS' SEXTET: The vocal groups sang in the Christmas and spring concerts and for church groups, sororities and clubs. All four groups received a first place ranking in the NISBOVA, a local contest. Only the Mixed Ensemble earned a second in the state contest at Butler, while the Boys' Ensemble, Girls' Ensemble, and Girls' Sextet achieved first places. Directors—Mr. Richard Holmberg, Mr. Gene Fort.

U.Y.S., Future Nurses

INTERESTED STUDENTS FORMED NEW ORGANIZATIONS . . . UNITED YOUTH FOR SERVICE: Formerly called the Y-Teens, girls broke away from the Hammond Y.W.C.A. and regrouped, naming their club U.Y.S. With the purpose of serving the community, members sold honey on Indiana's "Honey Sunday" for the retarded, and collected money for the Warren Beatty Drive. Members worked at the Booster Club's chili dinner and ushered at school plays and the Munster Invitational Speech Tournament. During sectional week, U.Y.S. sold lollipops. Sponsor—Miss Anne Brisco. FUTURE NURSES: The club united high school students interested in nursing careers. Members toured St. Margaret's Hospital and presented a "Funny Fashion Show" for patients. Sponsor—Mrs. Frances Chang.

Paragon

NEW PHILOSOPHY INCREASED RESPONSIBILITY . . .
PARAGON: For the second consecutive year it received an All-American rating by the National Scholastic Press Association. Editors attended the N.S.P.A. convention in Chicago. Among the money-making projects were the sweater sale, "We Love Sweaters," a "giant" cookie sale, and the annual S.O.S. sales. A group endeavor included this year's campaign for the yearbook, KODAK. With greater obligations, editors pulled through deadlines and picture retakes, producing a yearbook and jokes such as "The Almighty" and "Cut the flowery copy." The carnival booth, Paragon's Pedigree Parade, concluded another year for the Paragon Staff. Advisor—Miss Nancy Kelley. Awards—M.O.E.: Mary Ann Jugovic, Jim Young; M.O.A.: Leslie Feingold; M.O.S.: Marcia Bartok.

Pep Club

NEW IDEAS DISTINGUISHED THE YEAR . . . PEP CLUB: Dressed in new red jump suits, white blouses, and cowboy hats, the M.H.S. Pep Club cheered its teams on. Mandatory meetings ensured organized pep blocks. The club used signs and helium balloons, sponsored occasional pep rallies, and decorated the homes of athletes. Profits from the Christmas wreath sale paid for letters spelling "Munster" and "Victory" and for the 3-D Mustang Mascot. The Fresh Pep Club wore red jackets, previously used by the Varsity Pep Club. Sponsors—Mrs. Betty Russell, Mr. John Edington.

Survivors, Art Club

STUDENTS DISPLAYED VARIOUS TALENTS . . . ART CLUB: In an attempt to organize, the club chose new standards for membership. Only art class students could join and an Art Club Board was formed. Projects included macramé belts and the art show at the Hammond Art Center. Sponsor—Mrs. Ruth Stout. SURVISORS: After the dissolution of "We Folk", students regrouped to form the "Survivors", based on an interest in music and fun. They were devoted to their own interpretation of folk rock music. This year the "Survivors" performed for Chi Sorority, and for the Griffith and Munster Rotary Clubs, and on Channel 50 with the News Bureau. Sponsor—Mr. Hal Coppage.

9th Grade Boys', 9th Grade Girls' Glee Clubs

CHORAL GROUPS VARIED IN SIZE . . . NINTH GRADE BOYS' GLEE CLUB: Efforts to combine this group with the Ninth Grade Girls' Glee Club failed due to the small number of boys. Small, but loud, the glee club entertained at the Christmas and spring concerts, but it did not attend the NISBOVA concert. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg. NINTH GRADE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB: Sharing the hour with the Boys' Glee Club, this choir met for only half an hour each day. In order to balance the program, the choir sang in Wilbur Wright Jr. High's Christmas and spring concerts. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg.

Science Club, Fakers Club

SERVICES REFLECTED SOCIAL CONCERN . . . FAKERS:

With fun the purpose, a group of students organized the new Fakers Club "to provide bizarre forms of entertainment usually not available on the high school level." The group required no dues and no parliamentary procedure, chose a shaking hand as the club symbol, and coined the terms, "Dem's," "uses," and "Farbo." The Faker homecoming car, complete with the "Dem Jugglers," announced "Fake the Panthers." Sgt. Watus's Faker Brothers Circus featured the "Magic Faker," "The Savage Orangutang," "The Great Demluga," and the world premiere of "Demlet." Fakers instituted the "Faker of the Week Award," collected money for Operation Breadbasket, and sponsored the award-winning "Demtations" in the Student Senate talent show. Sponsor—Mr. Dan Bengert. SCIENCE CLUB: An early fall trip to Turkey Run boosted the membership. Concerned about the environment, the club focused in on pollution with the original film, "The Dirty Old Man," shown during the "Pollution Week." Members collected newspapers to be reprocessed and sold concessions in the commons area after school to raise money for science equipment. Sponsor—Mr. J. Karagianis.

COACH, TEAM, SEASON . . . UNITED IN VICTORY . . . With only four returning lettermen, the Mustangs surpassed all expectations as they were pressured on to victory by Coach Friend . . . "How bad do you want it?" Dreaded film sessions replayed mistakes, while powder fights, and analgesic added comic relief. There were "Bung", "Hee Haw", "the Friday Nighters", anti-pep rallies, the torch gang with their bonfire, and "the same guys every time." The Valpo game climaxed the season, producing a defeated and exhausted team. The season had ended . . . but the games continued. DEDICATION EXPLODED INTO ENTHUSIASM . . .

Membership in 150, 350, 500, and 1000 mile clubs instilled summer time dedication. A reorganized schedule demanded six a.m. workouts while waiting for the sunrise. A constant companion, Coach Rich Dilling commanded respect and inspired a winning team with "Meaty", "Percy", "Toy", "Lar", Rasch's one day puppy mascot, and "Percy's" safari. In the Homecoming Parade, the X-Country car was the first ever sponsored by an athletic team. "Faker's Capers" only camouflaged staunch dedication. VICTORIES OPPOSED DISAPPOINTMENTS . . . "Fuzzy and Buzzy" and a summer of practice with gallons of rootbeer were supervised by a "hippie" coach. History was made as fans rode a bus to cheer the team on at Crown Point. Although supported, the Mustangs suffered a stifling defeat. A third at sectionals spurred Doug and Jim to defeat their same opponents at Highland, 4-1. Jim Young achieved an undefeated season. The team . . . "we kept in good condition." EACH GAME SPARKED HOPE FOR A NEW START . . . The team anxiously viewed each game as another chance to prove itself. Mixed emotions prevailed on the long quiet bus rides home as the players contemplated past disappointments and future successes. Practices were livened up by Assist, Coach Robertson's humor and by "Meat Lips," "Wad," "Shotgott," "Weird," and "Melfunction." After practice, players looked forward to a cold bottle of pop and a cold dinner. Rusty Brooks even had a "week's vacation." Despite Mark McConnell's unexpected drive into the bass drum, the band always continued to beat out the inspirational "Go . . . Go, Go . . . Go You Munster Mustangs" . . .

Sectionals ended in team disappointment. "Everybody loves a winner," yet many parents and loyal fans supported the team, which won even in defeat. Swimming

THIS WAS THE YEAR OF THE SEAHORSES! The Seahorses emerged, strengthened by depth, and intent upon a state rank. Ordered by Coach Jepson to "Listen Up," the unflinching Seahorses even defeated Lafayette Jefferson. Their enthusiasm shone in their record, marred only by one loss to South Bend Jackson. Underwater marathons and challenge days dared the swimmers to do even better. Weekday morning practices convinced the swimmers that the "Wet head is dead!" Weight-lifting and the "Lane One Circus" became a part of the practices, which were temporarily halted only when the pool "went dry." Before meets, "Singing Lloyd" entertained team members, including "Butch," "Irish," "Mario," "Pubert," and "Rufus," while "Meaty" read "Run to Glory." The "Hall of Shame" recalled minor misfortunes experienced by divers during competition. At Sectionals the Seahorses exhibited their championship qualities as they defeated Bishop Noll. Placing sixth in the state finals, the Seahorses had done it all! Awards—Captains: Scott Parrish, Russ Pellar, M.V.S.; Paul Steiger, Scott Parrish, P.H.D.; Russ Pellar, Roger Levin. Team records—Munster Relay: 1st; Sectionals: 1st; State Finals: 6th. State Records—200 yd. Medley Relay: Paul Hipple, Scott Parrish, Roger Levin, Russ Pellar, 5th; 200 yd. Individual Medley: Scott Parrish, 3rd; 200 yd. Freestyle: Jim Rasch, 5th; Diving: Paul Steiger, 3rd; 400 yd. Freestyle: Jim Rasch, 6th.

Wrestling

HIGH EXPECTATIONS PRESSURED A YOUNG TEAM

... Demanding practices disciplined the wrestlers as they performed fifteen second drills and competed in minute matches. Quick dips in the pool sometimes interrupted continuous jogging, while hockey and basketball games with Assist. Coach Oliaro occupied after-practice hours. Wrestlers' fan clubs supported their men as they went through stages of crash diets, weigh-ins, and "gluttony". Despite Kent's injured hip and "Dawayne's" dislocated thumb, the team continued with grapplers such as "Hokey", "Chopper", and "Big Bird". Their motto: "It doesn't matter how you lose but what you lose, and a grappler doesn't like losing matches, food, clothing, and women." Awards—Varsity Captains: Phil Jankura, Kent Kraus; P.H.D.: Phil Jankura; M.V.P.: Dayne Paul; M.V. Baseball

INDIVIDUALS FORMED A STRONG TEAM . . . Before each game, Assistant Coach Sherry encouraged the team to "Win this one for the gipper." Coach Niksic quietly scrutinized team batting and watched the players choke games during the last innings. "Shinkiepoo" seemed to enjoy diving for each flyball. Team members fought for the limited amount of tape and witnessed "Michael's return to baseball," while "Brookie" struggled with his indecision about whether to attend college or play with the major league Kansas City Royals. Golf

ENJOYMENT MADE GOLF REALLY WORTHWHILE . . .

Team comedy alleviated game pressure and members were teased, "Nice hit, Alice". During the few low points of the season, golfers used the "banana chop" and created the "Stymie" Award for Sportsmanship. Meanwhile, Dennis Dietrich carefully studied every possible detail of the game. After the outstanding team showing at Merrillville, the low man earned the privilege of riding "shot gun in the green pig". It really was a "Well-Balanced Team". Awards—Captains: Dennis Dietrich, Roger Clark; All Conference: Roger Clark, Dennis Dietrich; M.V.P.: Dennis Dietrich; P.H.D.: Bob Giro; Head Hunter: Mark Miller. RUNNERS ACHIEVED TRIPLE CROWN CHAMPIONSHIP . . . "Long Slow Distance Practices" and practice meets launched a hectic season for runners including "The J.", "Ned", and "Little Mober", while Ray Hodor's team membership was often uncertain. In one climactic week, the team took top honors at the Hammond, Chesterton, and Rensselaer relays. Locker room and orange fights were interrupted with "Hey, hey, What's going on here?" DIVERSIFIED IDEALS COMPRISED THE CLASS . . .

Despite contrasting thought and actions throughout the years, the class of '71 succeeded in attaining two spirit trophies and two first place homecoming float awards. This year's float focused on a towering football player who kept "The Cat in the Bag". Although lacking interest, seniors wore their colors, brown and gold, and cheered "Do It, Do It" during Sectional Week. Testing decreased activities and led to an anticlimactic last day of school. The banquet at Scherwood Club included a slide presentation, "Highlights of the Year". After three days of tiring practice, seniors finally graduated on May 30, 1971.

ENTHUSIASM FINALLY ATTAINED RECOGNITION

With prom as their major project, juniors began plans in May of 1970. By sponsoring dances and the carnival and the sale of helium balloons, booster buttons, and hot chocolate, they hoped to reduce the cost of prom tickets. Meanwhile, work continued on the homecoming float, "a pink pussycat." A second place disappointed optimistic juniors. Nevertheless, spirit persisted and captured the Sectional Week Spirit Trophy for the juniors. Finally, at prom, juniors created a "Carousel of Wonder".

Sophomores

BEING PART OF MHS OFFERED NEW ACTIVITIES . . . Unsure of overall class capabilities the class of 1973 began their sophomore year with an autumn Dunes trip. After defeat in the Homecoming float competition, they sold Valentine hearts and ordered class rings. The disqualification of '73's sectional wall led to disappointment. However, the sophs came back and set a new record, swimming 73 miles in the traditional swim marathon. The circumstances of this frustrating year sadly dampened spirits and divided attitudes of many class members leaving only a few to live up to '73's mounting enthusiasm.

Freshmen

CLASS OF '74 BECAME FIRST FROSH OF M.H.S. . . . Lack of funds eliminated the possibility of a class float so freshmen decorated for the homecoming dance. Sweatshirt-jacket and candy cane sales increased the class treasury. Aluminum foil and caricatures of the basketball team covered the noted Frosh sectional wall . . . "Shine on to Victory". A change of sponsor did not weaken this young but challenging class.

 first frosh high school pep session. Above Right—Class
 Officers: Miss Pat Martignoni (Sponsor), Donna Figuly
 (V.P.), Maureen Piister (Sec.), Bob Brand (Pres.), Mary

COMPLETION

Paragon Specifications: The 1971 Paragon was printed by Paragon Press in Montgomery, Alabama, on 80 lb. "Calais" paper. The 10-column, mosaic, and Look-Like layout styles were combined to form the basic-page plan. The book has two pica inner margins and outer margins of three pica, three pica, three pica, and five pica.

The copy style was designed to identify each spread with a label head (36 pt. Optima Medium) and a page label (8 pt. Optima Medium), describe each picture through combined captions (8 pt. Optima Medium), and detail the history of the year through insight blocks (8 pt. Optima Medium) with the mood of the year capitalized in the first line of the block).

The professional photography for the 1971 Paragon was done by Walinger's Studios and Root Photography Studios, both in Chicago, Illinois. The special photographic effects were achieved through printing techniques and fish-eye, wide-angle, and telephoto lenses. The four-color pictures on the endsheets are part of the Rainbow Color Plan offered by Paragon Press.

The cover was designed by the staff and produced by S.K. Smith of Chicago, Illinois. The cover is black leatherette with color silk screens to match the spot color within the book.

The book is unified through a theme of "contrast," the spot color, and the cover design. In the opening, each spread of three pictures with a spot color and a title represents one of the sections in the book. The color, title, and cover design are repeated on the section divider. The red, yellow, green, blue, and purple spot colors were specially blended by Paragon Press; the black color is produced through a reverse.

The Academics section is organized on the aspects of learning. The Athletics section includes the use of collages (with 2 pt. lines and identification designs) to facilitate the use of more pictures. The Advertising section uses words and dominant pictures to represent the products on each spread (with 30 pt. Optima Medium reverse type, 8 pt. Optima Medium, and 2 pt. lines).

The use of additional pages tipped-in at the end of the book for autographs and black fly-leaves allows for further unification of the book through the colors and the design.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 5.5 million women employed in the public sector in 1995, compared with 4.5 million in 1980.

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. One reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its workforce. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were women, compared with 78% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

Another reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are full-time and permanent. In 1995, 68% of the public sector workforce were employed on full-time contracts, compared with 58% in 1980. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are essential to the functioning of the state, such as those in the health and education sectors.

A third reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are well-paid. In 1995, the average salary of a public sector employee was £18,000, compared with £15,000 in 1980. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the higher grades of the public sector pay scale, such as those in the senior management and professional grades.

There are a number of other reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. For example, the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector, which is a sector that is traditionally more open to women than the private sector. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector, which is a sector that is traditionally more open to women than the private sector.
